MAYFIELD NOTES.

An Incendiary Fire Occurred Yesterday.

Too Much Local Option Whiskey Overstays Two Fights.

A Mayfield dispatch to the Louisville Times: The dwelling of Mr. Ed Rohrer, in West Mayfield, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is about $1000, with no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and officers are at work on the case. While the fire company was fighting the fire a box of cartridges and a pistol exploded, causing a general panic among the bystanders. After the fire had been subdued and the fire company called off, the two dwellings adjoining the one burned were found to be on fire, and the second alarm was given. There is some doubt as to whether the last fire was caused by the first. If the torch was applied by a hand he was certainly a bold one.

Dan McGuire and John D. McLain, brothers-in-law, living at Cuba, Ky., a small town twelve miles south of Mayfield, quarreled and then fought. McLain cut McGuire's throat from ear to ear. McGuire is in a dangerous condition, and will probably die from the wounds. Both men are prominent farmers of the section. They were intoxicated.

A fight occurred at Louisville, Ky., in which Earl Wilson and Curk Fields were the combatants. Fields struck Wilson with a big shaft and broke his arm. The men are well-to-do farmers. Too much booze caused the fight.

From the Mayfield Mirror: Judge Spithill discovered Saturday morning that his guests were preparing to take their leave from his hospitable roof; still he prevailed on them to remain yet a little longer. They readily consented to stay, provided he would put them in separate cells and keep them locked up day and night. The conditions were cheerfully granted by Mr. Spithill, and they are now enjoying all the pleasures of solitary confinement. They had saved a pair of steel nails in two with a piece of steel nail from a shoe sole. John Pace and John Jackson were the active workers in the plan to escape. Jackson

CAPTAIN CAUGHT.

Two Promiscuous With His Little Pistol.

Is the Condition of Mr. W. H. Brian.

Grand Dietator W. H. Brian, of the Kentucky Knights of Honor, is dangerously ill at his home on Monroe street near Fifth.

Mr. Brian has been indisposed for several weeks, but it has been only within the past few days that his illness became serious.

Today he was slightly improved, but the family physician does not deny that his condition is very serious. Mr. Brian, in addition to his prominence in secret order circles, is secretary of the Board of Education, and one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Paducah, having been of the firm of Ezell & Brian.

NEED A CLEANSING.

The City Should be Put in Good Sanitary Condition.

There is Much Sickness Now and the City Needs Sanitation.

The city is badly in need of a good cleaning up, especially just at this time, when there is so much drizzle and illness.

The gutters in many places are in a bad fix, and likewise the premises of many citizens. Other cities are taking drastic steps to place their streets and yards in a good sanitary condition, and Paducah should not be behind in it. Let some one start the good work.

MR. GILBERT RESIGNS.

To Manipulate a Clicker in Louisville.

Mr. George Gilbert, the popular and efficient telegraph operator who has for the past year been at the Tuley Stock Exchange, has resigned his position, and leaves tonight for Louisville to accept a position with Mr. Lloyd Bloomfield, of the city, who is there running a stock exchange. Mr. Gilbert's place here will be filled by Mr. Frank Hoover.

NEWS AND COMMENT.

Five hundred volunteers have been enrolled at Natchez to guard the town and enforce the quarantine against yellow fever.

Six people were killed and many others were injured by a tornado at Port Arthur, Tex.

Kentucky farmers complain of the scarcity of stock water in many counties on account of the long drought.

California fruit growers are offering $3 a day and board for help in harvesting their crops.

Several incendiary fires in Indianapolis have been traced to yesterday afternoon late at Lockwood's shop with a drawing knife and hand saw. He had been boarding at Gallagher's on South Second street, and the supposition is that he was temporarily deranged from illness and despondency.

He suffered from attacks of malaria and yesterday morning had a chill. In the afternoon he went to Lockwood's and became violent. The knife and saw were taken from him, but he soon drove the others outside and while they were telephoning for police assistance he cut himself three times in the throat and eleven times in the hand.

Acting Marshal Harlan and Officer Eiter went down and took charge of him, bringing him to the city hall, where Lockup Keeper Kollar dressed his wounds. He refused to talk or assign any reason for the rash attempt.

Thacker's home is in Madison, Ind., and he has been here three or four years. He bears a good reputation among those who know him, having always been considered honest, sober and industrious. He is about 35 years old and unmarried.

Thacker was seen by a Six reporter this morning, and said that his attempt yesterday was occasioned by trouble. He said he was in trouble because "they wanted to kill him."

This conversation was rambling, and who "they" were could not be gotten from him.

The wounds on his head seemed to pain him little today, and he seemed very anxious to get from the cell he occupied in the lockup.

An effort is being made to have him tried for lunacy and he will probably be tried at once.

COAL AT PRINCETON.

A Rich Vein Discovered There Recently.

On the farm of W. H. Ray, about six miles from Princeton, a fine vein of coal has been discovered. The vein ranges from three to five feet deep and covers an area of 200 acres. A company has been organized and work will be begun at once to mine the coal and place it on the market.

QUICK PASSAGE.

Given to the Railroad Right of Way Ordinance.

Two Called Meetings of the Council.—One Last Night and One Today.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

The council met last night in called session, Mayor Yeiser presiding. The object of the meeting, as stated by the mayor, was to consider an ordinance granting the Illinois Central Railroad Company right of way to construct spurs from their track on North Ninth street, between Trimble and Burnett streets, in order to enable factories, particularly the new cordage factory, to get easy access to the line.

An ordinance was then introduced covering the subject and given first passage. The council was then called to meet again this morning at 10 o'clock to give second passage to the ordinance, the cordage factory men desiring to complete their preliminaries and leave the city.

TODAY'S MEETING.

The council met again this morning, pursuant to a call of the mayor, all the members being present except Councilmen Dipple and Kirkchick.

The two ordinances, an amending ordinance and the one granting the railroad company right of way, were given second passage, and the mayor agreed to sign them.

MR. I. YOUNG ASSIGNS.

Mr. J. Andy Bauer Made His Assignee.

The Assets Are About $3,000.—Liabilities Greater But Not Given.

Mr. Isidore Young, proprietor of the Young Baking Powder manufactory and storage warehouse company, at Sixth and Trimble streets, last night made a deed of assignment to Mr. J. Andy Bauer, the pottery man. The deed was filed in County Clerk Graham's office this morning.

Mr. Young deals all his property, consisting of a lot on Clay street between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets, stock, furniture and fixtures, sewing machine oil, baking powder cans, turpentine, labels, castor oil, soda bottle goods, electric motor, starch, phosphates, notes and accounts to Mr. Bauer, the assignee, to sell and apportion the proceeds among his creditors. These are estimated to be worth at least $3,000.

The liabilities are not stated, but are in excess of $3,000. Mr. Young had been in business about a year, and the cause of his assignment is practically slow collections.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL NOTES.

The Annual Stockholders' Meeting Tomorrow.

Mr. J. W. Huntley, the Illinois Central special agent, was in the city today.

The 2:15 train, due this afternoon from Memphis, was two and a half hours late out of Memphis.

The Illinois Central today issued orders that all north-bound trains must undergo inspection at Fulton, Ky. Dr. Arch Dickson, of Henderson, is chief inspector, and began his duties today.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central will be held at Chicago on Wednesday. Several important matters will come up, among them the following:

"The approval of the proposed issue of the company's $20,000,000 Louisville division and terminal first-mortgage gold bonds, payable 1953, being part of an authorized issue of $25,000,000, to be secured by first mortgage lien upon the railroads lately of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern Railroad Company; the Owensboro, Falls of Rough and Green River Railroad Company, and the Short-Route Railway Transfer Company, together with certain lands in Memphis, Louisville and elsewhere along the line of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern railroad, used or to be used in connection therewith, and the approval of a lease of said railroads and property by the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans Railroad Company to the Illinois Central Railroad Company, and of the mortgages of said properties and franchises by said lessor and lessee to secure said last-mentioned bonds."

A Painful Mistake.

Miss Ermine, the six-year-old daughter of Mayor D. A. Yeiser, stuck a nail in her foot yesterday, occasioning great pain.

BRUTAL MURDER.

Good Natured Swede Killed by a Young Desperado.

Cairo the Scene of Another Murder.—Culprit Under Arrest.

Another murder occurred near Cairo Saturday. Earnest Hartman killed David Samones, and is in jail for the crime.

Hartman was the aggressor from the start, and left the justice's court with the keen knife with which he committed the deed clamped in his hand behind him. He became so insulting to Samones that the latter threatened to slap his face if he didn't "keep his mouth shut."

As Hartman continued his foul abuse the big, good-hearted Swede placed his left hand on his shoulder, and said: "See here, my boy, this must stop."

By raising his arm Samones left his heart exposed, and into it, quick as lightning, Hartman three times plunged his knife, and as often drew it away. After he was stabbed Samones threw the boy to the ground and took away his knife. He then tottered to a tree and expired within twenty minutes from the time he was stabbed.

Hartman is about 18 years of age, and lived with his mother. He has had a bad reputation for some time, but this is the first occasion that he has landed within the pale of the law. Samones was a quiet, peaceable man, and enjoyed the friendship and esteem of all who knew him.

MR. C. J. CROAL DEAD.

Succumbed this Morning to Typhoid Fever.

Mr. C. J. Croal, the well known trunk manufacturer, whose place of business is at 208 Broadway, died at 2:45 o'clock this morning at his residence 614 North Fourth street, after a lengthy illness of typhoid fever.

The deceased was one of the best known men in Paducah, and was highly respected by all who knew him. For years he had lived here and manufactured trunks. He was about 48 years of age, and leaves a wife, two sons, Messrs. John and Charles Croal, and a son-in-law and little grand daughter.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the residence, burial at Oak Grove. The ceremonies will be under the auspices of several lodges, of which the deceased was a member.

NEEDS TAR.

The Disgraced Actions of an Unknown Negro.

Since Ophelia Brown, the respectable looking colored girl assaulted at the mouth of the alley on Ninth near Broadway, reported her exciting experience with a negro Sunday night to the police, Officer Crow has learned that this locality is infested with some sort of a dark devil whose abnormal mania is likely to get him into trouble.

He lurks about people's back premises, skulks about in the dark, and at least half a dozen times in the past week has made indecent exposures in the presence of ladies.

The police are trying to apprehend him, and should be he caught an indignant populace will see that he gets justice.

OUT AGAIN.

Jackson's Wounds Were Not Serious.

J. L. Jackson, the foreman at Stiles who was shot by Tom Corley last week, has about recovered from his wounds, and yesterday returned to his home at Stiles and resumed work.

Nothing has been heard from Corley since the shooting, although the general belief is that he is not far away.

POLICE COURT.

Only a Few Cases Up This Morning.—None of Importance.

There was a short session of Judge Sanders' court this morning.

Dr. P. G. Reed was fined $1 for using insulting language towards J. W. Gilliam.

A case against Mrs. Mary Williams, for a similar offense, was continued.

Henry Williams, for using insulting language towards the same man, was fined $3 and costs.

Mr. Ed Hamman, for violation of the ordinance relative to excavations in streets, was acquitted, no disposition having been shown to violate the law.

Squire Ford and Annie Bell, colored, were fined $20 each for immorality.

Died of Consumption.

George Dawson, a colored barber, died yesterday of consumption at his home on Washington street.

There is more than the total value of the greenback currency. This is more than five times the value of the annual silver product of the country. What folly is it then for cotton-growers to think that their prosperity depends upon doing something for silver, when all the silver produced in the country would not buy one in five of their cotton bales!—N. Y. World (Dem.)

The Democratic state platform adopted in Pennsylvania in April, 1896, begins with "We are in favor of a firm, unvarying maintenance of the gold standard." Last month the Democratic State convention in Pennsylvania adopted a platform beginning: "We are firmly and unalterably opposed to the single gold standard." Those Democratic papers that think it is reason to change one's opinion, might take the case of the Pennsylvania Democrats in hand.

ABOUT OUR HOPED-FOR "GENERAL."
 The Baltimore "Sun," a conservative and intelligent journal, has this morning editorial in a late issue which is good enough for reproduction:

"The 'Iron Age,' in an article commencing in the new 'rush of business' and deprecating anything like a boom, incidentally states a fact that is significant. It says:

"Such strong evidences of activity are seen on every hand that the most pessimistic are obliged to acknowledge the complete disappearance of depression, while the hopeful are so elated that they are in danger of being carried off their feet. It is a new experience for wholesale merchants to find their stocks shrinking more in a month than had been expected in three. Manufacturers who sell to the western hardware trade find it impossible to get their orders running more than 30 per cent. slower than last year."

A few months ago Mr. Bryan, in his travels about the country, asked his silverite friends casually when they met him at the railroad stations: "Have you seen the General?" "What General?" they would ask in reply. "General Prosperity," was Mr. Bryan's answer, whereupon there would be silverite laughter. Prosperity promised as the result of defeating free silver had not then arrived, and we have all seen him. The laugh is now on Mr. Bryan.

WE ARE SATISFIED.
 The "Register" devotes considerable space to the fact that the manager of the St. Louis has made an affidavit that the St. Louis seven hundred dollars is first year. If the notice in the "Register" office had made inquiry of any newspaper man of any experience he would have been informed that that was a splendid showing. If he would tell the truth, somewhat of an unknown quantity with him, he would be compelled to say that the "Register's" first year's business came nearer to losing than seven hundred dollars than seven hundred and that they have never had over fifteen thousand invested in a paper that could not be sold for five thousand dollars. He would also say that his former partners in the paper lost considerably over $700 and owned only about one-third interest. Of course this is not the loss of the present manager of the "Register," everybody knows that he had nothing of his own to lose, as his principal occupation before endeavoring to run the free silver wing of the Democratic party, was for McKinley and both Democratic nominees was clerking in a coal office at $10 a month.

The St. Louis manager is perfectly satisfied with its first year's showing and its directors are more than pleased. It pays its men every Saturday night, and if the "Register" does as much now it won't be long before it will cease to do it.

The record of having $15,000 invested in a business worth less than $5,000; of being afraid to have a policy of any kind; of having an editor and manager ashamed of his vote; of being afraid to tell what is in circulation is the manager of a newspaper with a record like this would better turn to stones.

REPUBLICAN SOUTHERN PROSPECTS.
 At no time since the close of the civil war have the prospects of the Republican party in the South been as bright as at the present, after the large defections from the Democratic party to Populism and the increased development of manufactures in the principal states south of Mason and Dixon's line. To the student of American politics it must seem somewhat surprising that Kentucky and Maryland, two Democratic strongholds, should have Republican governors, and that in Tennessee at the last presidential election the Republicans should have polled 15 per cent. of the total vote in the state, while they had 36 per cent. of it in Georgia, 52 per cent. in West Virginia, 46 per cent. in Virginia, and 47 per cent. in North Carolina, besides polling 167,000 votes for McKinley and Hobart in Texas, a state in which the Republican vote in 1880 was only 57,000; in 1888, 88,000; in 1892, 81,000.

The fact is that the Republicans have been increasing rapidly in numbers and influence in all the states of the South, particularly in those on the southern border, with the exception of two, South Carolina and Mississippi, in which, by constitutional provision, there is a large disfranchisement of colored voters. The chief cause of this change is the growth of the Populist party, which is a white man's party, and has withdrawn many voters from the Democratic camp, and is at getting many recruits from Republican ranks. In no presidential election since the close of the civil war have the Republicans polled so large an electoral vote in the Southern states as they did last year. Mr. McKimley received 12 electoral votes in Kentucky, 8 in Maryland, and 6 in West Virginia, which, with 3 in Delaware, make a total of 25, in what was formerly the solid South. In three states—North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee—the contest between the Democrats and the Populists on the one hand and the Republicans on the other was very close, and the severance of friendly political relations between the Democrats and the Populists in these states makes more probable that hereafter Republican success.—N. Y. Sun (Dem.)

GOOD TIMES ARE COMING.
 The good old times are coming from the North and South and West. The orders will be flowing until there is no tany awing. We've only been a-crawling and a-breathing for a spell. But things are sort of settled, and we're feeling pretty well. Five people ain't a-going to take to wearing wooden shoes. Just because there was a panic and the bankers got the blues. Our country's still as big, and strong, and rich as it can be. And the good old times are coming; just wait and you will see.

The good old times are coming and they're coming mighty soon. The trade winds are a-blowing like a regular monsoon. You can hear the wheels a-turning, and hear the shoe men say: "They ain't felt so encouraged this many and many a day. Don't listen to the croaker, 'cause his liver's choked with bile; he'd sooner groan in misery than wear a pleasant smile. But join the grand procession and help to swell the song. The good old times are coming and they're coming right along."—Shoe and Leather Review.

ALL A FAKE.
 About Cherokee Indians Coming to Kentucky.

It was all a result of "New Journalism" Editorship.

The story of the coming invasion of Kentucky by Indians was, it was been published, intended to enter Logan county to look for the grave of a great chief, turns out to be a fake, says the Hopkinsville News Era.

A letter of inquiry was addressed to the editor of the "Cherokee Advocate," a paper published by the Cherokee tribe at Tahlequah, the chief city of the Indian Territory. Following is the reply:

"Tahlequah, I. T., Sept. 6.—Editor 'Herald,' Russellville, Ky., Ind. Sir: Your letter of recent date has come to the truth of the Cherokee people going to Kentucky, received an answer in reply that the story is as complete a fake as was ever perpetrated on journalism.

"The Parkers, mentioned in the article, are Cherokees and not Cherokees. I am unable to learn if the Cherokees ever had a chief by the name of Wash-ho-tah-nah. It is, however, a Cherokee name.

"If anyone would know when such a scheme I believe I would, and I can tell you that I have never heard of any such thing, and that the only paper owned by an Indian tribe and published by the Cherokee nation, is the 'Cherokee Advocate.' I am a white man and come originally from Mississippi. I know too this, however, that I think it is an Indian and merely copied the report to deceive the outside world."

"Wanted: In person, Editor 'Cherokee Advocate,' and the Parkers (Cherokees)." The credit of originating this mammoth lie is in dispute, being claimed by the "Cherokee Advocate," the "Herald," and the "Post," according to the "Herald." The "Post" is the correspondent of the "Herald" and the "Cherokee Advocate" claim to have made a scoop in the discovery of the "Cherokee Advocate" and the "Herald" papers were first to print a picture of an unbroken continuity. This is one of the greatest perils of the "new journalism" is to let the truth be known.

COMMITTEE CHANGES.
 Mr. C. M. Louke succeeds Mr. Ed O. Leigh.

The Democratic Committee meeting, which was in progress as the paper went to press yesterday, resulted in the election of Mr. C. M. Louke as chairman of the Democratic county committee and secretary of the city committee.

Mr. Dick Barber was chosen chairman of the city committee and secretary of the county committee.

Mr. R. T. Lightfoot was chosen a committee to succeed Mr. Ed O. Leigh, resigned.

The meeting lasted nearly two hours, despite the statement in the "Register" made with its usual accuracy, that it lasted but a few minutes.

The Marriage of Big Amusement.

The Great John Robinson and Franklin Bros.' enormous Shows continued in an epoch in the annals of amusements, the like of which has never before been known.

About every decade or so a new king of the tented world dawns upon the people. Of the famous personalities associated with the boyhoods of the men of the present day, "Old John Robinson," as he was familiarly termed, has passed away, but his great shows have passed from father to son for three generations. P. T. Barnum is a name and Adam Forepaugh's name has even ceased to be a circus trademark. The face of the genial Barnum, however, is yet made to beam from the dead walls, although in his body rests in the sepulcher, and his executors have disposed of the interest in the show, which was held by his estate.

The public has felt that Barnum and Forepaugh's shows without Barnum and Forepaugh were but hollow pretenses, and if it were not for the fact that the great John Robinson Shows have passed from father to son, it would naturally have cast around for the coming of the new leaders in this time-honored field of amusement.

There is a destiny that shapes all ends, and the men who are to rule the circus world for the coming span of years are at hand. The sun never moved with more certain fate than the grey and early dawn to the audience of noon, than has been the progress of the Franklin Brothers during the brief past to the present season, where they and John Robinson, the grand-son of the originator of tented amusements, now stand foremost in tented enterprises, either in this country or abroad.

Four enterprising, honest and sterling men, all with futures full of promise, and each an accomplished gentleman, as well as specially skilled in some branch of the circus business, the "world's" press have been in pronouncing the exhibition foremost in metropolitanity, and the best ever seen. It is hardly to pick faults in Paducah and asks a verdict. All big cities are en route, and sooner or later will be ready to welcome the new blood, enterprise and novelty that are wrapped up in just such a stupendous exhibition as this Napoleonic quartet is said to offer.

LARGEST KNOWN.

Is the Public School Enrollment This Year.

1420 White and 630 Colored Started in Yesterday.—Total 2050.

The total enrollment of yesterday, the opening day of the public schools, was much greater than anticipated, being 1420 white and 630 colored, a total of 2050 pupils, which is 181 more than were enrolled last year on the first day.

Today there have been new arrivals, but they have not yet been classified. Supt. McElroy did not expect more than 1950 or 2000 at the most.

There are now two more pupils at the high school at the start than there were during the whole of last year.

The public has felt that Barnum and Forepaugh's shows without Barnum and Forepaugh were but hollow pretenses, and if it were not for the fact that the great John Robinson Shows have passed from father to son, it would naturally have cast around for the coming of the new leaders in this time-honored field of amusement.

TWO BAD ACCIDENTS

Narrow Escape of Foreman Abernathy Today.

Three Ribs Broken.—John Dunlap Also Badly Hurt.

City Foreman, J. S. Abernathy, of the sewerage force, had a narrow escape from being killed by the reeling machine at Third and Harrison streets, where the sewers are being laid, this forenoon.

He was struck by a "bucket" of the machine, and terribly bruised. It seems that the "trigger" failed to catch, and the bucket fell several feet.

Mr. Abernathy, in addition to having numerous bruises, sustained fractures of three ribs. He was taken to his room at Hotel Gilbarto, where Dr. Boyd was called to attend him.

Mr. Abernathy's home is in Memphis, and he came here at the instance of Sanitary Engineer Elliott, and is under City Engineer Wilcox.

John Dunlap, who is employed in the sewerage works, fell into one of the trenches this morning, and was injured internally, as well as badly bruised up. He lives on West Trimble.

Maccabees Attention.

Griffin Tent No. 47, Maccabees, will meet at 4 o'clock tomorrow at the residence of the late Mr. C. J. Croal, to attend the funeral in a body. By order of commander.

All roads these days lead to St. Petersburg. For a dozen years during the reign of Alexander I. Russia had a greater weight in European councils than any other nation. Then for a time during Metetrach's days the center of political gravity shifted to Austria. It went back to the Russia of Nicholas I. during the time of Napoleon III. to Germany in the early days of the present empire, to England in the latter part of Beaconsfield's career, and now it has transferred itself to Russia again. Nicholas II. is an exceedingly big figure in the Old World's politics.
